2. Scope of this Privacy Policy

2.1 This Privacy Policy applies only to the actions of The Diversity Agency and Users with respect to this Website. It does not extend to any websites that can be accessed from this Website including, but not limited to, any links we may provide to social media websites.

2.2 For purposes of the applicable Data Protection Laws, The Diversity Agency is the "data controller". This means that The Diversity Agency determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, your Data is processed.

3. Data Collected

3.1 We may collect the following Data, which includes personal Data, from you:

- a. name;
- b. date of birth;
- c. gender;
- d. contact information such as email addresses, telephone numbers and postal addresses;
- e. physical attributes including height, weight, body measurements, shoe size, hair colour and eye colour;
- f. photographs and video content, including headshots, portfolio images and digitals;
- g. employment and professional information relevant to model representation;

- h. social media handles and online portfolio links;
 - i. information submitted via our model application, booking, onboarding or availability forms;
- in each case, in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

4. How We Collect Data

4.1 We collect Data in the following ways:

- a. data is given to us by you; and
- b. data is collected automatically.

5. Data That is Given to Us by You

5.1 The Diversity Agency will collect your Data in a number of ways, for example:

- a. when you contact us through the Website, by telephone, post, e-mail or through any other means;
- b. when you register with us or submit a model application form;
- c. when you submit information via our booking, onboarding, test shoot or availability forms;
- d. when you use the shortlist or enquiry features on the Website;
- e. when you attend castings, auditions, test shoots or bookings arranged through us;

in each case, in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

6. Data That is Collected Automatically

6.1 To the extent that you access the Website, we will collect your Data automatically, for example:

- a. we automatically collect some information about your visit to the Website. This information helps us to make improvements to Website content and navigation, and includes your IP address, the date, times and frequency with which you access the Website and the way you use and interact with its content.
- b. we will collect your Data automatically via cookies, in line with the cookie settings on your browser. For more information about cookies, and how we use them on the Website, see the section below, headed Cookies.

7. Our Use of Data

7.1 Any or all of the above Data may be required by us from time to time in order to provide you with the best possible service and experience when using our Website. Specifically, Data may be used by us for the following reasons:

- a. internal record keeping;
- b. managing model representation, bookings and casting submissions;
- c. communicating with clients, models and prospective talent;

- d. promoting our models and talent to clients and industry contacts;
- e. publishing model profiles, images and measurements on the Website and in showpacks;

in each case, in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

7.2 We may use your Data for the above purposes if we deem it necessary to do so for our legitimate interests. If you are not satisfied with this, you have the right to object in certain circumstances (see the section headed "Your Rights" below).

7.3 When you register with us and set up an account to receive our services, the legal basis for this processing is the performance of a contract between you and us and/or taking steps, at your request, to enter into such a contract.

8. Who We Share Data With

8.1 We may share your Data with the following groups of people for the following reasons:

- a. our employees, agents and/or professional advisors — so we can manage bookings, castings and talent representation;
- b. clients and brands — so we can submit you for castings, bookings and campaign opportunities;
- c. third-party service providers who operate parts of our Website or booking platform — so we can provide our services to you;

in each case, in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

9. Keeping Data Secure

9.1 We will use technical and organisational measures to safeguard your Data, for example:

- a. access to your account is controlled by a password and a user name that is unique to you;
- b. we store your Data on secure servers;
- c. we restrict access to personal Data to those employees and contractors who need it to perform their role.

9.2 Technical and organisational measures include measures to deal with any suspected data breach. If you suspect any misuse or loss or unauthorised access to your Data, please let us know immediately by contacting us via this e-mail address: info@thediversity.agency.

9.3 If you want detailed information from Get Safe Online on how to protect your information and your computers and devices against fraud, identity theft, viruses and many other online problems, please visit www.getsafeonline.org. Get Safe Online is supported by HM Government and leading businesses.

10. Data Retention

10.1 Unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law, we will only hold your Data on our systems for the period necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy or until you request that the Data be deleted.

10.2 Even if we delete your Data, it may persist on backup or archival media for legal, tax or regulatory purposes.

11. Your Rights

11.1 You have the following rights in relation to your Data:

- a. Right to access — the right to request (i) copies of the information we hold about you at any time, or (ii) that we modify, update or delete such information. If we provide you with access to the information we hold about you, we will not charge you for this, unless your request is "manifestly unfounded or excessive." Where we are legally permitted to do so, we may refuse your request. If we refuse your request, we will tell you the reasons why.
- b. Right to correct — the right to have your Data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- c. Right to erase — the right to request that we delete or remove your Data from our systems.
- d. Right to restrict our use of your Data — the right to "block" us from using your Data or limit the way in which we can use it.
- e. Right to data portability — the right to request that we move, copy or transfer your Data.
- f. Right to object — the right to object to our use of your Data including where we use it for our legitimate interests.

11.2 To make enquiries, exercise any of your rights set out above, or withdraw your consent to the processing of your Data (where consent is our legal basis for processing your Data), please contact us via this e-mail address: info@thediversity.agency.

11.3 If you are not satisfied with the way a complaint you make in relation to your Data is handled by us, you may be able to refer your complaint to the relevant data protection authority. For the UK, this is the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO's contact details can be found on their website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

11.4 It is important that the Data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your Data changes during the period for which we hold it.

12. Links to Other Websites

12.1 This Website may, from time to time, provide links to other websites. We have no control over such websites and are not responsible for the content of these websites. This Privacy Policy does not extend to your use of such websites. You are advised to read the Privacy Policy or statement of other websites prior to using them.

13. Changes of Business Ownership and Control

13.1 The Diversity Agency may, from time to time, expand or reduce our business and this may involve the sale and/or the transfer of control of all or part of The Diversity Agency. Data provided by Users will, where it is relevant to any part of our business so transferred, be transferred along with that part and the new owner or newly controlling party will, under the terms of this Privacy Policy, be permitted to use the Data for the purposes for which it was originally supplied to us.

13.2 We may also disclose Data to a prospective purchaser of our business or any part of it.

13.3 In the above instances, we will take steps with the aim of ensuring your privacy is protected.

14. Cookies

14.1 This Website may place and access certain Cookies on your computer. The Diversity Agency uses Cookies to improve your experience of using the Website and to improve our range of services. The Diversity Agency has carefully chosen these Cookies and has taken steps to ensure that your privacy is protected and respected at all times.

14.2 All Cookies used by this Website are used in accordance with current UK and EU Cookie Law.

14.3 Before the Website places Cookies on your computer, you will be presented with a message bar requesting your consent to set those Cookies. By giving your consent to the placing of Cookies, you are enabling The Diversity Agency to provide a better experience and service to you. You may, if you wish, deny consent to the placing of Cookies; however certain features of the Website may not function fully or as intended.

14.4 This Website may place the following Cookies:

14.5 You can choose to enable or disable Cookies in your internet browser. By default, most internet browsers accept Cookies but this can be changed. For further details, please see the help menu in your internet browser. You can switch off Cookies at any time, however, you may lose any information that enables you to access the Website more quickly and efficiently.

14.6 You can choose to delete Cookies at any time; however, you may lose any information that enables you to access the Website more quickly and efficiently including, but not limited to, personalisation settings and shortlist data.

14.7 It is recommended that you ensure that your internet browser is up-to-date and that you consult the help and guidance provided by the developer of your internet browser if you are unsure about adjusting your privacy settings.

14.8 For more information generally on cookies, including how to disable them, please refer to aboutcookies.org. You will also find details on how to delete cookies from your computer.

15. General

15.1 You may not transfer any of your rights under this Privacy Policy to any other person. We may transfer our rights under this Privacy Policy where we reasonably believe your rights will not be affected.

15.2 If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this Privacy Policy (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision will, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Privacy Policy will not be affected.

15.3 Unless otherwise agreed, no delay, act or omission by a party in exercising any right or remedy will be deemed a waiver of that, or any other, right or remedy.

15.4 This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted according to the law of England and Wales. All disputes arising under the Agreement will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English and Welsh courts.

16. Changes to This Privacy Policy

16.1 The Diversity Agency reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy as we may deem necessary from time to time or as may be required by law. Any changes will be immediately posted on the Website and you are deemed to have accepted the terms of the Privacy Policy on your first use of the Website following the alterations.

You may contact The Diversity Agency by email at info@thediversity.agency.
